WELSH television channel S4C will find out tonight whether it has won a prestigious award at a major conference.

S4C has been nominated in the Broadcaster of the Year category at the 2008 Cartoon Forum Cartoon Tribute awards, which recognise outstanding contribution to the European animation industry throughout the year.

The awards ceremony at Ludwigsburg, Germany, is part of the annual European co-production event for the animation industry. S4C will be competing against channels from France, Sweden and Germany for the award, which will be voted on by forum delegates. Rhian Gibson, S4C's Director of Commissioning, said: "The nomination reflects the successful collaboration between S4C and the independent animation sector in Wales."
