

Theresa Plummer-Andrews (United Kingdom)

Born in London, UK, Theresa was schooled at St. James's Roman Catholic School. She started her career in theatrical agencies, then went on to be Production Manager for Portman Productions on location in UK, Sri Lanka, Australia and Singapore.

Theresa progressed to be Account Executive for the SBS in Australia, helping to open the channel and buying programming from all over Europe. Then she went to ITV/TVS as Head of Children's Acquisitions, after which she was seconded to the main ITV Network, buying children's programming for the whole network.

She was head hunted by the BBC in 1986 and joined them as Head of Children's Acquisitions and Co-Productions, a post she held for 19 years. Since 2004 she has had her own consulting company, Plum Trees TV Limited.