

CARTOON MOVIE ANNOUNCES THE FINALISTS FOR THE 2020 CARTOON TRIBUTES

Directors, producers and distributors from eleven European countries have been nominated for the 2020 Cartoon Tributes, the awards that recognise the work of European animation professionals. Created in 2001, these awards are granted annually by Cartoon Movie, the pitching and co-production event for European animated films.

Most of the nominated films have gone through Cartoon Movie in their development or production stage, confirming thus the outstanding importance of this event for the European animation.

Among the nominees are some of the most relevant and award-winning films and companies that have substantially contributed to the development of the European animation industry over the past year. Chosen through an e-voting platform by the roughly 900 Cartoon Movie participants, the Director, Distributor and Producer of the Year will be announced on March 5 at the Palais des Congrès in Bordeaux.

The nominees in each of the categories are:
